Many youths loss their golden age without doing anything worthy for themselves, their family and the country. They waste their crucial time due to bad working culture, lack of working capital, and other reasons.

While their energy and knowledge exhausted without any contribution. As a result, they'll be in jeopardy concerning their life at their retirement as they couldn't generate income in their early ages. So, ORDA gives due attention for job creation to youths and tries to curve the situation of unemployment.
